Unleash your inner developer
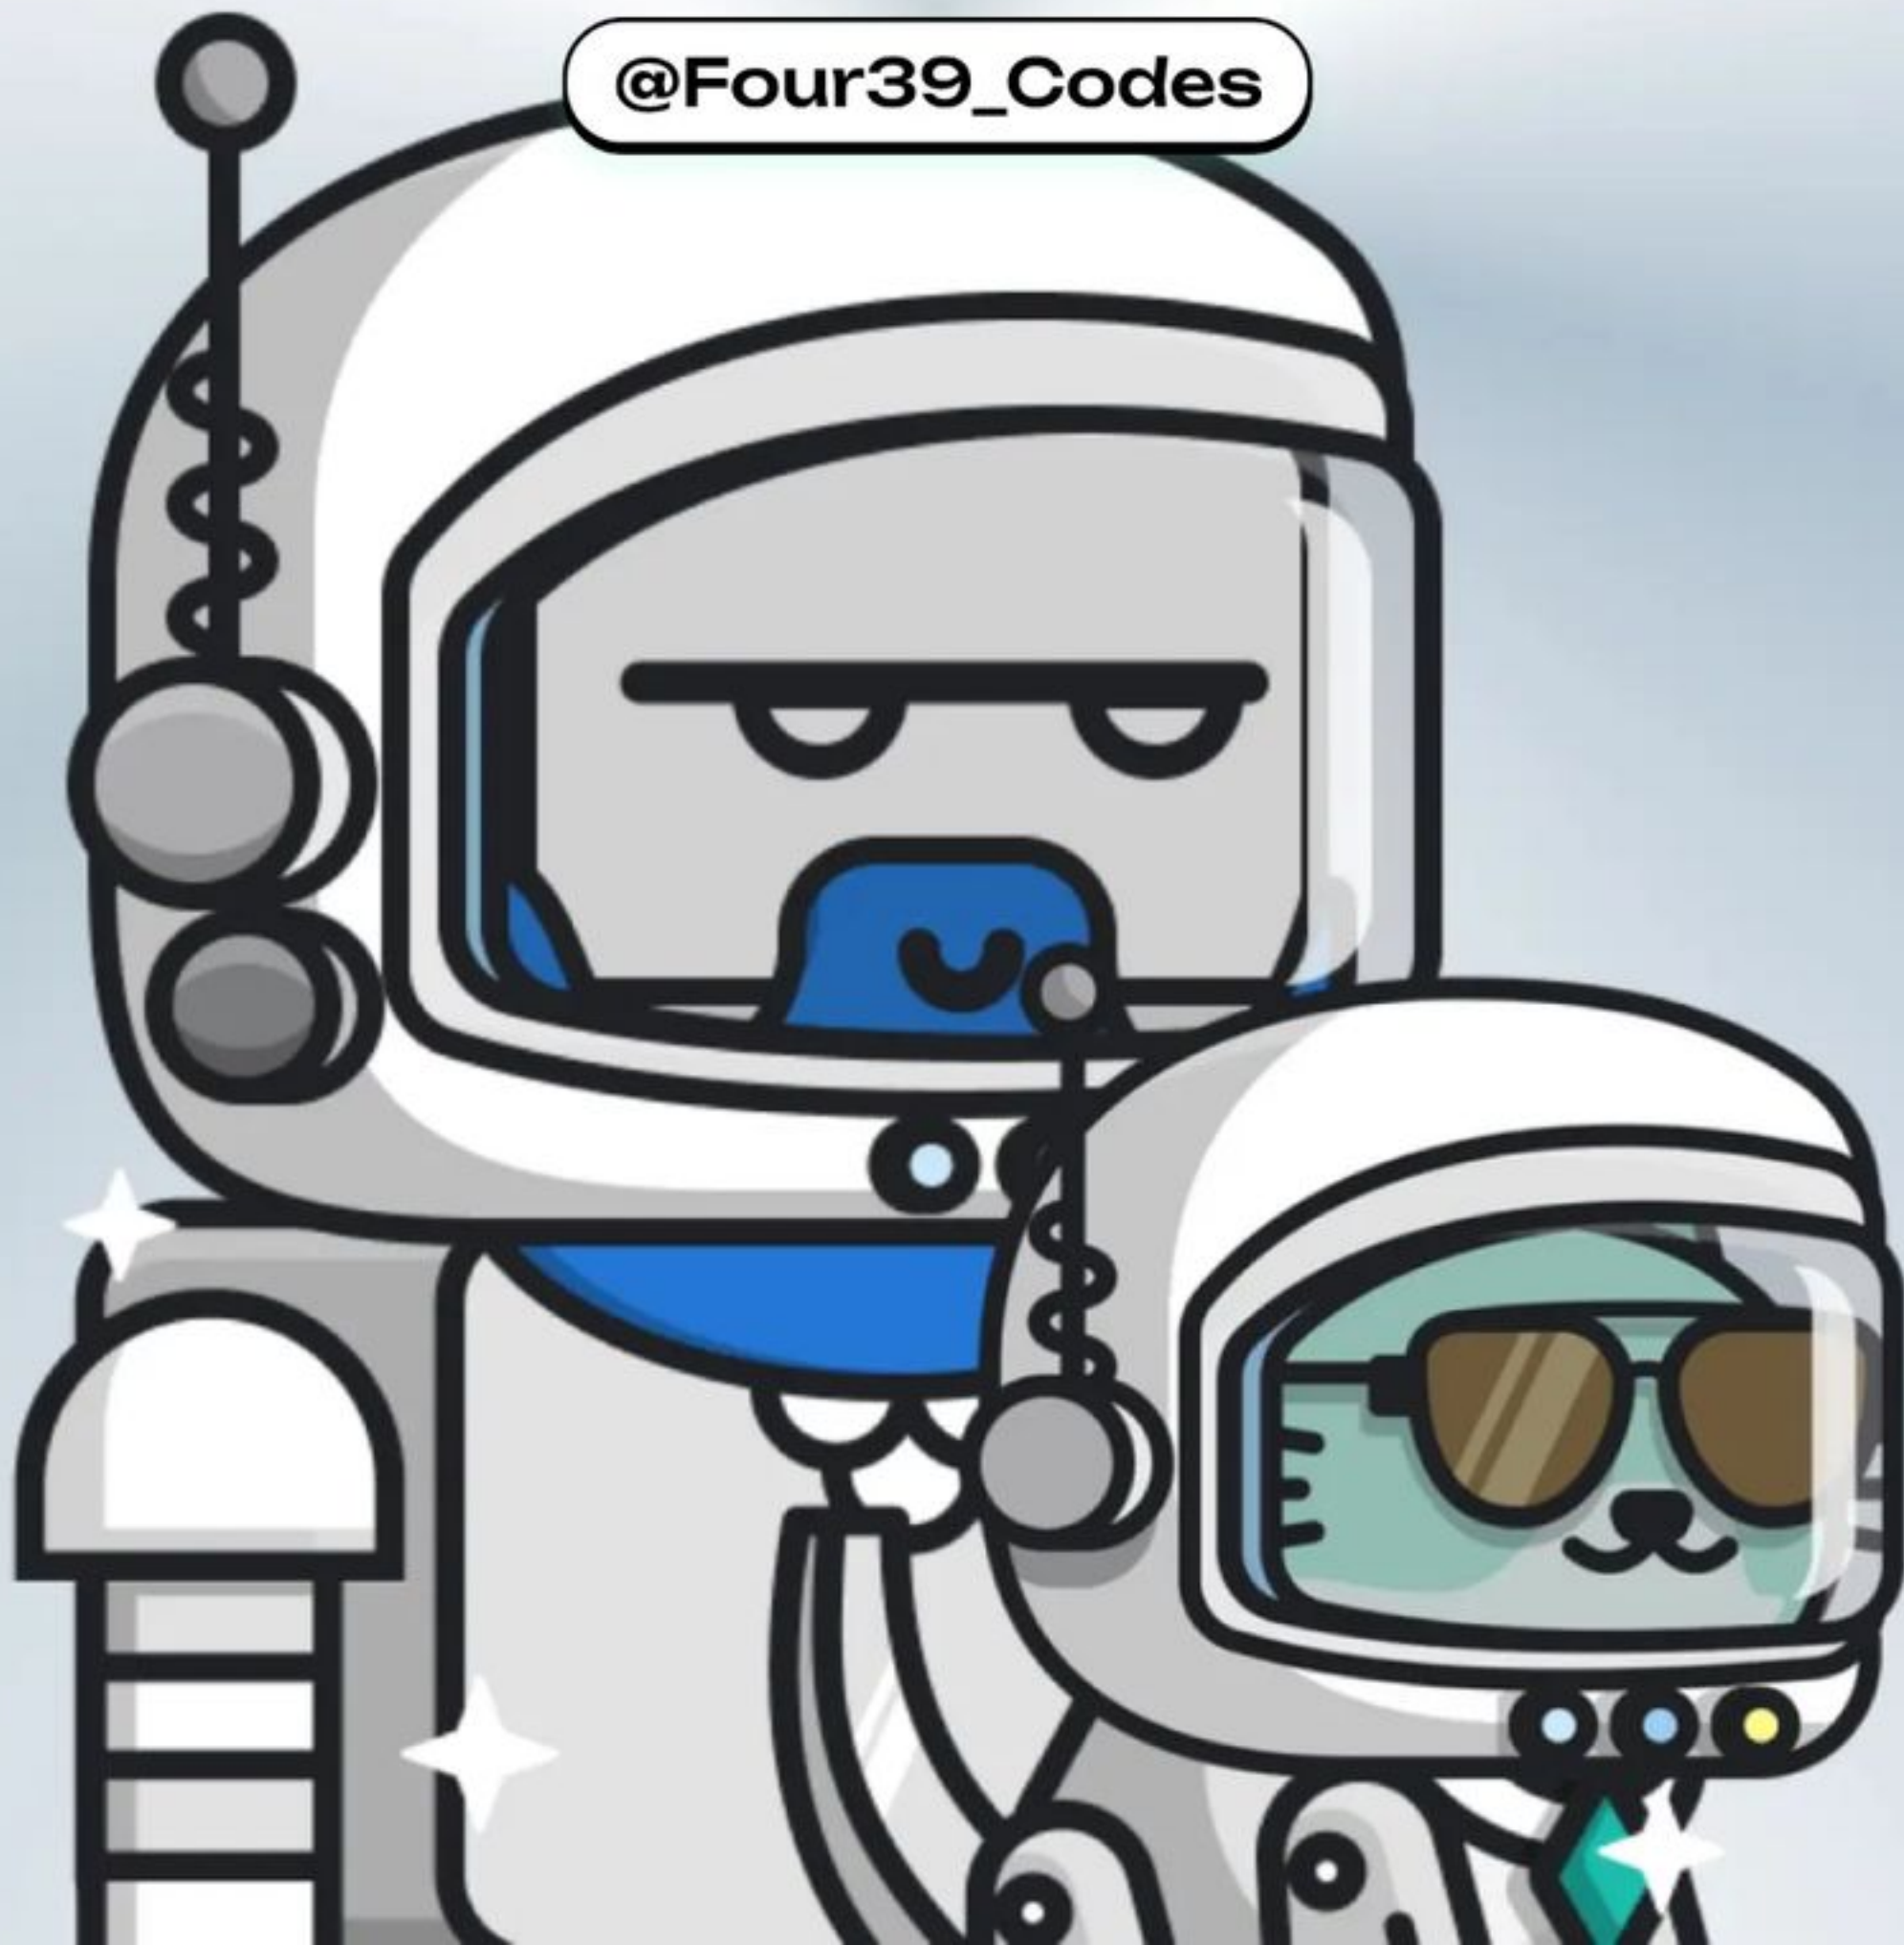

with these free APIs

@Four39_Codes

Spotify API

↗ developer.spotify.com/documentation/web-api/

This API allows you to access information about music tracks, artists, and user playlists.

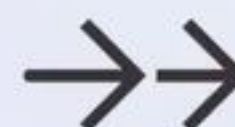

OpenWeather API

↗ openweathermap.org/api

This API allows you to retrieve the current weather conditions and forecast for a given location.

Github API

↗ docs.github.com/en/rest

This API allows you to access information about users, repositories, and events on GitHub.

→→

TMDB Movies API

↗ developers.themoviedb.org/3

This API allows you to access information about music tracks, artists, and user playlists.

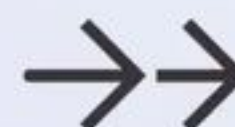

ESPN API

↗ developer.espn.com/docs

This API Provides information about sports teams, scores, and news.

Dog CEO

↗ dog.ceo/dog-api/

This API Provides a database of dog breed images and information.

Giphy API

↗ developers.giphy.com/

This API allows you to access information about music tracks, artists, and user playlists.

Twitter API

↗ developer.twitter.com/en/docs

This API allows you to Access tweets and information of a Twitter user or retrieve tweets matching a search query.

Advice Slip

↗ api.adviceslip.com/

This API Provides random pieces of advice.

→→

Wikepedia API

↗ www.mediawiki.org/wiki/API:Main_page

This API Provides access to Wikipedia's vast collection of articles.

NASA API

↗ api.nasa.gov/

This API Offers data and imagery from NASA's missions and experiments.

Earthquake API

↗ earthquake.usgs.gov/fdsnws/event/1/

This API Provides information about earthquakes that have occurred worldwide.

→→

Have you tried any of these APIs in your projects?

Let me know in the comments !